CANON MANUFACTURER'S WARRANTY FOR CANON CONSUMER IMAGING PRODUCTS

(applies to purchases made on or after 25th November 2019)

This warranty applies to the Canon consumer product categories listed below (Products) purchased in Australia or New Zealand from Canon Australia Pty Ltd or Canon New Zealand Ltd (Canon) or their respective authorised distributors, dealers or retailers.

Canon-branded products purchased from other sources (including 'grey', 'parallel' or 'direct' imports) are not covered by this warranty. They may come with a different warranty offered by the retailer or relevant sales company based in another country.

You will need proof of purchase to make a warranty claim so please keep your receipt and this warranty card safe. You can also register your product on our website as a record of your purchase.

CONSUMER GUARANTEES

You may have rights under applicable Australia & New Zealand consumer laws.

For goods supplied in Australia only: Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and for compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.

For goods supplied in New Zealand only: This warranty applies in addition to your rights under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993. More information on the Consumer Guarantees Act is available from Consumer Affairs.

CANON MANUFACTURER'S WARRANTY

- Canon's warranty does not cover:

- replacing consumables including drums, lamps, film, SD cards, ink, toner and paper;
- rubber rollers in scanners;
- any software included with the Products; or
- any malfunction or specific requirement of any other item of hardware or software you link to the Product.

- Canon's warranty does not apply where damage is caused by external factors including:

- normal wear and tear;
- damage caused outside Canon's control including accidents, electrical faults, power surges, internet connection fault, vandalism or burglary;
- your negligent or improper use of the Products including failing to follow operating instructions or providing an unsuitable environment;
- leaking batteries;
- liquid exposure (except for waterproof Products) or infiltration of foreign particles;

- repairs or modification of the Products except by Canon or its authorised service agents;

- using unsuitable ink or toner or other materials in the Products;

- using any other consumables, accessories, supplies, parts or devices (including batteries, tapes/cards, lenses and flash attachments) not conforming to Canon's specifications; or

- shipping or other transit.

- Subject to your consumer rights, Canon excludes all liability in respect of the Product for any loss that is not reasonably foreseeable from a failure of the Product including liability for negligence, loss of your data, loss or damage to third party software, loss of expenditure associated with the Product, losses incurred while the Product is being repaired or during transit to or from Canon, or loss of enjoyment.

- This warranty is not transferable.

MAKING A WARRANTY CLAIM

The process for making claims differs by Product as described below. We may ask you for a written description of the problem, images or other relevant material. We may try to troubleshoot and resolve the problem with you first. Remember, please have your proof of purchase ready.

Projectors purchased in Australia

To make a claim, call Canon as soon as possible on 1300 799 604.

If Canon accepts your warranty claim, we will collect the Product to repair or replace any faulty parts or rectify any faulty workmanship at our cost but any costs to unmount it and/or securely and safely package it for delivery to Canon is at your cost (subject to consumer law rights).

Document scanners¹, faxes², micrographics and WG inkjet printer range purchased in Australia

¹ Does not apply to P series scanners

² Applies to laser fax models that can also be used as standalone printers

To make a claim, call Canon as soon as possible on 13 13 83.

If Canon accepts your warranty claim, we will (at our cost and subject to consumer law rights) repair or replace any faulty parts or rectify any faulty workmanship.

Where the Product is located:

- in a 25km radius of a Canon direct service centre, Canon or its authorised services agents will perform warranty repairs using its reasonable commercial efforts to do so by the end of the day after Canon receives notice of the warranty claim (excluding weekends or public holidays); or
- outside a 25km radius of a Canon direct service centre, a fee will be charged to provide on-site warranty services.

Inkjet printers (excluding PIXMA PRO, imagePROGRAF and WG inkjet ranges) purchased in Australia

To make a claim, call Canon as soon as possible on 1300 460 738 or submit a request at www.canon.com.au/support.

If we need to examine the Product then, except as otherwise required under consumer law, you must pay for all packing, freight and insurance costs to ship the Product to Canon or its authorised service agent.

If Canon accepts your warranty claim after the Warranty Period, we will (at our cost and subject to consumer law rights) supply a replacement of the same or equivalent model (subject to availability).

If your warranty claim is not accepted, Canon or its authorised service agents may still be able to resolve your problem, where service is charged at our standard rates (only with your prior approval).

All other Products

To make a claim, call Canon or our authorised service agents as soon as possible on 13 13 83 (Australia) or 0800 222 666 (New Zealand), submit a request at www.canon.com.au/support (Australia) or visit www.canon.com.au/warranty (Australia) or www.canon.co.nz/warranty (New Zealand).

If we need to examine the Product then, except as otherwise required by consumer law, you must pay for all packing, freight and insurance costs to ship the Product to Canon or our authorised service agent.

If Canon accepts your warranty claim, we will (at our cost and subject to consumer law rights) repair or replace any faulty parts or rectify any faulty workmanship, either perform the work on-site or return the Product to you.

If your warranty claim is not accepted, Canon or our authorised service agents may still be able to resolve your problem, where service is charged at our standard rates (only with your prior approval) and either perform the work on-site or deliver the Products for repair at your cost.
